Gentlemen:

I am very anxious to get plaster casts of the four coins formerly in the Rodgers collection attributed to Kutbed-Din Aibak, described by Rodgers in his catalogue of his coins purchased by the Government of the Panjab, page 58 in Part II. I am making an especial study of all coins showing the bull and horseman. I beg to remain,

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir,

Please refer to your letter dated the 29th May 1935. Casts of four coins of Qutub-ud-Din Aibak which you wanted have been sent to you under a separate post parcel which I hope will reach you in good condition. I regret that inspite of every care, the casts could not be better as the condition of the coins is anything but good. I however hope that they will serve your purpose.

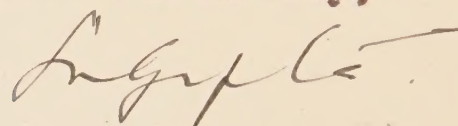

The account of Rs. 6/12/- received with your letter under reference is as under:-

Cost of 4 casts of coins. Rs. 4/-/-

Packing and postage charges. 2/12/-

Total: 6/12/-

Yours faithfully,

Curator, Central Museum.
